We asked Kirsi for a Cavalier pup,
and Jussi, you've been ours ever since.
You've won lots of ribbons and trophies,
our national champion prince.

*Jussi, our prince with a champion's heart,
it's your birthday — you've been ours from the start.
You love the young ones as well as the old,
and you'd love the whole world if you're told.*

You excitedly bark, and lick at your paws,
when you see that I'm ready to go.
You grab at my leg if I turn the wrong way,
and the whole time we walk it's your show.

You'll wander into next neighbor's garden
and straight into their house boldly go.
You beg for your bit of whatever we eat,
and keep begging till you see there's no more.

*Jussi, our prince with a champion's heart,
it's your birthday — you've been ours from the start.
You love the young ones as well as the old,
and you'd love the whole world if you're told.*

You jump on the couch and sit on my lap,
and up into bed you will leap,
you'll lay yourself down across my legs,
and contentedly snore while you sleep.

Reaching 10 years is not all that old,
we pray you will live longer still.
But here's the one thing we want you to know —
we love you and for sure always will.

*Jussi, our prince with a champion's heart,
it's your birthday — you've been ours from the start.
You love the young ones as well as the old,
And your story's now finally told.*

Happy birthday, sweet prince, take your throne,
that old chair is for you alone.
